I'm feeling everything's about to blow

I'm feeling everything's about to blow

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow

Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed

321

Relentless earth, coming to collect

Hidden from the awaited day of rest

The feet that swell, walk the memories of late

Wrapped around the heart of a pity masquerade

Watch out

Get down now

No doubt

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow

I'm feeling everything's about to blow

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow

Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed

321

The moon has turned to blood

Baptizied in vengeance flame

They shake at what's to come

When He breaks the seals of pain

So roll back the prison bars

For charity not fame

Till the streets will over run

With the tongues that shout the name

Watch out

Get down now

No doubt

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow

I'm feeling everything's about to blow

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow

Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed

321

Get down now

Watch out

Get down now

No doubt

321

Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
321
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
Oh, here He comes, undefeated, undisputed
