I'm feeling everything's about to blow
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed 321

Relentless earth, coming to collect Hidden from the awaited day of rest The feet that swell, walk the memories of late Wrapped around the heart of a pity masquerade

Watch out Get down now No doubt

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow I'm feeling everything's about to blow 321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed 321

The moon has turned to blood Baptizied in vengeance flame They shake at what's to come When He breaks the seals of pain

So roll back the prison bars For charity not fame Till the streets will over run With the tongues that shout the name

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow I'm feeling everything's about to blow 321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed 321

Get down now

Watch out Get down now No doubt

321

Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed

I'm feeling everything's about to blow
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
321
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
Oh, here He comes, undefeated, undisputed
