

She wanna, put on her favorite CD and take it off
She wanna, get up on top of some D and make it soft She wanna, ride around off in my big beige Coupe
But she don't wanna go and kick it with her own age group
She wanna, hit the dodo 'til it make hers eyes tight
But her, I.D. photo picture's on the right side So I, told her "get somewhere and jump you some hoop or hop some jax with your buddies 'stead of flirtin' with folks She wanna, smuggle Gin off in the club in her purse She wanna, be the one to say that she hit it first She wanna, hold the record for the most play things that she done stuffed off in her nani 'fore the age 18 She wanna, pierce her navel 'til it hurts like hell and play it off and pierce her tongue too 'cause she like girls She wanna, wrap her leg around the pole and go spin until them pills that she swallowed really start to kick in...

She wanna, ride in a Bentley 'cause she heard they the bomb
She wanna, lick on a sucker 'til her lips get numb She wanna, find a goldie that she know she can dig and then go eat some grits and eggs until her ass gets big She wanna, go adjust that look to fix her hair then go take some pictures sittin' in that wicker chair She wanna, let the pimpin' know she down to bone but when it come to her I.D. she done forgot it at home She wanna, knock a O.G., tell her girls she done got him then go into vivid detail 'bout his two-minute problem She wanna, drop her peachy folder down on the ground and then go get a Maxim magazine to show that she's down She wanna, let these players know that she ain't no kid So go put this wristband on bitch so we know who you is She want a diamond bracelet, a diamond necklace
A diamond party at thr Diamond Club with a diamond checklist...
