

Being Bad Feels Pretty Good

Does It Offend You, Yeah?

Read between the lines
My self respect has died
You got me in a bind
I'll never be confined

You make me
You break me
And maybe
It's draining

OK, you want it all the same
I will not be that way
I'll take it day by day

OK, you want it all the same
I will not be that way
I'll take it day by day

Fill me with your lies
A product of these times
I'll leave it all behind
I'll hunt from deep inside

You make me
You break me
And maybe
It's draining

OK, you want it all the same
I will not be that way
I'll take it day by day

OK, you want it all the same
I will not be that way
I'll take it day by day

(instrumental)

OK, you want it all the same
I will not be that way
I'll take it day by day

OK, you want it all the same
I will not be that way
I'll take it day by day
