I, I am coming, I am coming
To California to kill you

I, I am coming, I am coming
To rape and murder your family

You, you can try and run But there's nowhere left to hide

I will follow the sun
As it sets in the west
It will lead me right to you

Three thousand miles and in L.A. I can't wait to see
The look on your face
As I put my gun up to your temple
Pull the trigger that sends
You back to hell

You butchered my art And only to save a dollar

Are you ready to die my friend Are you ready to confront the end

Like Helter Skelter and Son of Sam By the days end You'll know who I am I spill your blood on The Hollywood Boulevard

I won't rest until your headless

You should have known
I would leave you helpless and alone, yeah
You were born to be a dead celebrity, yeah

Like Helter Skelter and Son of Sam By the days end You'll know who I am I spill your blood on The Hollywood Boulevard

I won't rest until your headless

Like Helter Skelter and Son of Sam By the days end You'll know who I am I spill your blood on The Hollywood Boulevard

I won't rest until your headless
I won't rest until your headless
