

Toothless Dream

Dog Fashion Disco

Hirudinoids, emotionless and feeding
Threatened by anemia
I am helpless and bleeding
Suspended in air
Caught in another toothless dream

When pagans sleep and atheists slumber
Evangelists and bishops come to comfort one another
Silent in prayer
Caught in another toothless dream

Possession by twilight haunts me continuously
Exorcised upon my gums
Possession by twilight haunts me continuously

There in the garden
The serpent sings a lullaby
That summons the undead from the ground

As vampires and zombies
Begin circling around me
In the year of our lord, time continuum
