Toothless Dream

Dog Fashion Disco

Hirudinoids, emotionless and feeding Threatened by anemia I am helpless and bleeding Suspended in air Caught in another toothless dream

When pagans sleep and atheists slumber Evangelists and bishops come to comfort one another Silent in prayer Caught in another toothless dream

Possession by twilight haunts me continuously Exorcised upon my gums
Possession by twilight haunts me continuously

There in the garden
The serpent sings a lullaby
That summons the undead from the ground

As vampires and zombies
Begin circling around me
In the year of our lord, time continuum
