

Heartbreak Collision

Dolla

Before the fight start to kick off i always used to trick off and keep her in designer bags to have her girl's pissed off Ridin with the top off they aint never go out and if a nigga pop off u kno imma show out,you know imma show out yeah you protected and all my ex es gotta respect it you to young to get in but i was connected so the bo uncer at the front let her enter threw the exit five minutes fo we get in my song get reques ted and we start throwing money till all the stripers get naked damn we used to kick it now we disconnected i thought we was different be we aint no acception late night textes keep us arguin Us ed to be running threw my mind now your jogging, now your just walking,footsteps lightly till they start to fade away and all i hear i silence,fuck every here and there but i feel no attachment used to be amazing dont know how that happend used to s ay i love her and i would really mean it Now im sitting thinking trying to comprehend the meaning

Where do we go
from here
when we know it hurts but we just cant seem to let go
so we work things out
but we both end up hurt
and it seems to dissappear
cuz the love we had just aint no longer here and im lost
on a road
with no speed limit a heartbreak collision is near dont pull me over
oh I just cant take it just cant take it

Before our love start to tear up, id rather get the hell up to focus on my rock collector check and get some mail off, u use to fix your h air up, put on clothes and make up, use to put it on me in the mornin when we wake up, use to cook and clean and do laundry on occasion, n ow u sit around the house and now im runnin outta patients got the nerve to be complainin but the bills stay payed, and they ain t neva late, and i aint eva layed a hand on u dat aint what men do my mama taught me well, snow boots by chanel she gettin every fall nigg a it will neva fail, if money eva funny bet you she can neva tell unl ess i eva told her just to show her what it was, like im out hea doin all of dis shit hea for us, but thats no longa hea cuz we no longa t here, we lookin for commitment that we no longa share

to dissappear
on a road
with no speed limit a heartbreak collision
