

Army Of The Dead

Domine

In the city of immortals a scream broke the silence it was a seer and he saw in his dreams
his beloved city of eternal life collapsing around him and its people trodden by a mighty army
The mad seer retold his vision to the king
so they gathered the mightiest warriors across the land they promised them entrance in their eternal city in exchange that they turned back the vision of the...

As the wizard summons ancient powers commanding thunders and lightning
the swords of the warriors on the battleground are shining in the sun
soon the battle rages on weapons are drawn in anger the warcries echo throughout the field
the invaders meet their doom

But the king and the seer betrayed the warriors
and the armguard was hidden beyond the gates
a cloud of arrows obscured the sun as they entered the city the promise of immortality has been denied

Sun shines the morning brings new life
a new day of hope and happiness yesterday is far away and years go by, fear goes away life goes on inside the city and peace will last for eternity

But rising from the earth came the true vision
the mad seer had seen so long ago prophecy fulfilled:
The army of the dead

Holy gift a ritual of seer destruction hunting their prey, cruel in their desire for vengeance

the dead warriors rise from their graves take what was promised then was denied:
the gift of immortality

and the sentence must be passed curse are your vicious lies in ashes the Eternal City must fall
so let the truth be told the Ivory towers are crumbling down
the Golden doors crushed to the ground
once a great City of Immortal is now the city of the...
