Epistle to Dippy

Look on yonder misty mountain See the young monk meditating rhododendron forest Over dusty years, I ask you What's it's been like being you?

Through all levels you've been changing Getting a little bit better, no doubt The doctor bit was so far out Looking through crystal spectacles I can see I had your fun

Doing us paperback reader Made the teacher suspicious about insanity Fingers always touching girl

Through all levels you've been changing Getting a little bit better, no doubt The doctor bit was so far out Looking through all kinds of windows I can see I had your fun Looking through all kinds of windows I can see I had your fun

Looking through crystal spectacles I can see I had your fun Looking through crystal spectacles I can see I had your fun

Rebel against society Such a tiny speculating whether to be a hip or Skip along quite merrily

Through all levels you've been changing Elevator in the brain hotel Broken down but just as well-a Looking through crystal spectacles, ah I can see I had your fun

Dum dum dum, dum dum, dum dum dum Dum dum dum, dum dum, dum dum dum
