Things to Wear

Donovan

If you wear a woven ring made of grass You can hear the fairies sing as they pass You can hear them rush and scurry When they're rather in a hurry.

If you wear a daisy chain, neat and strong You can hear the goblin train rush along You can hear it hoot and whistle As it dives beneath a thistle.

If you lace two grassy blades in your shoe You can dream of fairy glades, fairies too If you've found a four-leafed clover You can dream this four times over.
