Angels of Madness

The Doobie Brothers

There are no questions left to ask
Through your eyes I can see, our future now lies in the past
It can't be measured in simple time
Each stolen moment shared, a theft divine

And I

Drift through the shadows of a memory Silently echoing the words i'll never hear again

While the

Angels of madness hold you in their arms
Seductive lies disguised as truth
As you fade in their dark caress
Still I reach through empty nights for you
Love is no sin
Your night will end

Reflections they won't let you see
They weave a tapestry from broken threads of shattered dreams
You hold a mirror to yourself
And shine the light of blame on someone else

And I

Float through the echoes of the silence Lost in the shadow of the face i'll never see again

While the

Angels of madness hold you in their arms
Seductive lies they told as truth
As you fade in their dark caress
Still I reach through empty nights for you
Love is no sin
Your night will end

Through the shadows I can see
They're holdin' you, baby
As you fade in their dark caress
Still I reach through empty nights for you
Love is no sin
Your night will end
