

Little Prayer

The Doobie Brothers

When I wake alone at night
And you're so far away
I say a little prayer for you
And everything's okay

There's sunlight in your sparkling eyes
And summer in your smile
I'm sending up this little prayer
You'll stay here for awhile

Cause heaven knows I've been lonely
Oh but mercy came to me
Heaven must have sent you down
To set my poor heart free

So when I fall asleep at night
Your angel face I see
Thank heaven for this little prayer
That sent you here to me

Cause heaven knows I've been lonely
Oh but mercy came to me
Heaven must have sent you down
To set my poor heart free

So when I fall asleep at night
Your angel face I see
Thank heaven for this little prayer
That sent you here to me

Thank heaven for this little prayer
That sent you here to me
