

Can We Get It On

Down Low

Yo, whazzup
Are you at home?
Hallooo??
Damn, she's not home again...
Well, check this out,
I will leave this message on your answer machine
I hope you like it..
And it goes something like this...

Chorus:
Girl tell me your story
Ease to my glory
Can we get it on?
Girl tell me your story
Ease to my glory
Can we get it on?
All night long

I noticed that you looked at me
Hoping that I would't see
Or were you just trying To catch my eye and show me that somehow you like what you see Babygirl, don't play around
I think you know what I'm about
Babygirl, you knock me out
Wanna make you scream and shout
I make you girl mine in my life
Tell me can we get it on?

Chorus

Bridge:
Are you loving someone?
Are you loving someone else?
Are you loving someone?
Are you loving someone?
Are you loving someone else?
Are you loving someone?

What you mean to me simply can't be expressed
It seems like destiny to be has already made a effects
Thank you God, cause I've been blessed
With a woman that can press
By using her mind and not just showing off her breasts
In a tight dress so I guess like go luck up open the chest
I'm gonna tressure give you pleasure to the stand that can't be messured
Some men thinking about merrage, but you know I never did
Still from years for now I see my wife having my kids
Happiness and finit, I hope the dream of mine come true
Cause like the eys I've been signing I'm living for the love of you yeah, uh, yeah, and it don't stop

Tell me what's the deal?
tell me how u feel?
Keep it real

Cause I can't live with out you Baby!

Chorus & Bridge....

Tell me what's the deal?
Cause I canät live whitout you...

Hallo???? Halllo.....???
