

Hope Hell Is Warm

Doyle

My claws are sharp enough
To rip your heart in two,
And my love
That's just what I will do

Look in my eyes see the sign of the wolf
Chasing you down
The smell of death on breath
On my face is the smile of the wolf
Cunning surprise, my mind is a bloodbath

Our world is burning
We are turning
Into beasts under moonlight
World of fire
Desire to kill
Everyone in our sight
My midnight mistress
Bear witness
To the hour of the wolf that is coming on
And I hope that hell is warm

My teeth are sharp enough
To rip your soul in two
And My love
That is just what i will do

Look in my eyes see the sign of the wolf
Chasing you down
The smell of death on breath.
On my face is the smile of the wolf
Cunning surprise, my mind is a bloodbath

Our world is burning
We are turning
Into beasts under moonlight
World of fire
Desire to kill
Everyone in our sight
My midnight mistress
Bear witness
To the hour of the wolf that is coming on
And I hope that hell is warm

And I'm looking at you
Through these big wolf eyes
All the better for me
To watch you die

And I'm looking at you
All the better for me

And I'm seeing through you,
Through all of your lies
And for thousands of years

I will hear your cries

Our world is burning
We are turning
World of fire
Desire to kill
My midnight mistress
Bear witness
And I hope that hell is warm

Our world is burning
We are turning
World of fire
Desire to kill
My midnight mistress
Bear witness
And I hope that hell is warm

I hope hell is warm
