Sensuality

Drafi Deutscher

I see your eyes and I feel a lot of sensuality Your deep blue eyes give me such a kind of filling ecstasy. So I lay me down on a blanket made of purple phantasy You've touched me by your heart you did it from the start And all because of sensuality. How dreary was my life before your time ! A time of dissipation I lived apart from life's reality. But now you're here I feel the good vibration It's more than physical on top of sensuality. Τ I can see every move you make is sensuality Why is it me you are giving all your love and sympathy? Time all the time I will be with you until eternity I feel your energy just deep inside of me your energy of sensuality.
