

Night Corsaries

DragonHeart

The sands of time
Are running more than speed of light
All dimensions
Are taking us to the same place

The gate is open
And you can see a great new world
Like a dream a red moon shines in the sky

I can feel the emotions growing in my heart
When I see the great world under my eyes

I'm lost and tied in time
I'm living

Beyond hills
Where a castle flies in the high clouds
The knights ride
Across the mountain of black Crystal

In this kingdom
Space and time don't exist
Just nights and days where I will live forever
