Dragonland

Music Magnusson, Holmild Lyrics: Heidgert Assembling our forces in our way to the plains From the Mithril mountains dwarves join us from their mines Through dwarven mines I lead an invincible army Across Dragonland our warcries will be heard As we journey inward heading for the home of the elves A forest of magic a place of tranquil glades Through elven woods nothing can stop us now Across Dragonland we shall carry on Axe wielding berserkers, the dwarves' might will serve the ligh t Arrowpoints of Mithril, elven scouts always hitting thei prey Axe wielding berserkers, the dwarves' might will serve the ligh t Arrowpoints of Mithril, elven scouts always hitting thei prey My knights, my dwarves, my elves will fight for our dream The one, the twisted evil one will now be brought down to his k nees Assembled our forces, now we ride to the plains With power and with magic there is no way we can fail Through dwarven mines I lead an invincible army Across Dragonland our warcries will be heard
