

Raging Fire

Dragonsfire

Raging fire, burning, burning bright
My desire, light up the night

Living alone, abandoned time
Young man without a clue
His own thoughts, treacherous advice
Betrayed in the end
He's got no fear, inside anymore
And there's only one thing left
Like a flame, spreading the heat
Revenge is what he pleads

You know it's time to strike, ha, kill
Get ready for the fight

Raging fire, burning, burning bright
My desire, light up the night

Victim of the crime, what's he gone through
With pain and infamy
Satisfaction guaranteed,
He does it for his own need
Focused thoughts, the only thing
Can't repair a broken string
Payback time, control is lost
No matter what the cost

You know it's time to strike, ha, kill
Get ready for the fight

Raging fire, burning, burning bright
My desire, light up the night

Burn bright, burn bright, burn bright, light up the night
Burn bright, burn bright, burn bright, light up the night

My time will come
Watching you, watching me
My time will come
Set my spirit free
My time will come
Watching you, watching me
My time will come
Ha! Fight!

Raging fire, burning, burning bright
My desire, light up the night
