

Wings of Death

Dragonsfire

The demon is coming, he's asking for you
The nightmare ain't over, it's starting new
From dark shadows deep, he's rising again
Looking for you to fulfil his plan

Riding high on my burning wings
Arisen from hell, death I will bring
Way beyond the world that you know,
I have come to take you there

Riding high, riding high,
Riding high on my burning wings

His name is sorrow, his name is a pain
No matter what you say, he's coming again
Thousands of years he has rested in vain
Now he's awoken and broken his chain

Released from his lair
You shall beware

Riding high on my burning wings
Arisen from hell, death I will bring
Way beyond the world that you know,
I have come to take you there

Riding high, riding high,
Riding high on my burning wings

Harvesting souls, he will devour
Growing his strength and gaining power
He strides through the sky on a fiery path
The evil lord with his unrestrained wrath

Released from his lair
You shall beware

Riding high on my burning wings
Arisen from hell, death I will bring
Way beyond the world that you know,
I have come to take you there
