

3 Dimes Down

Drive-By Truckers

It was a straight shot
All it took was luck to not get caught
I laid three dimes down and the machine wanted 25 cents
In the back seat her and a friend,
One out the window and the other on the other end
One belt loop away from Sunday night's news

If the part about being who he was didn't help Tom get loose, What's a guy without a T. gonna get? Totally screwed, While chicken wing puke eats the candy apple red off his Corvet te
Three dimes down and 25 cents shy of a slice of the Doublemint twins
Come back baby, Rock and Roll never forgets
