

Dirtier Than You Want To Know

Drop Dead, Gorgeous

I was broken in
I'm not leaving instead
I broke promises kept
You're absent heart on a string
I thought I told you once
I thought I told you twice
I came here to get what I want
Fired two shots in the sky

You're always scared of the shadows
And still you look like you've seen a ghost
Come back, this heart attack won't spare my lungs
Take it all

To lure the kill;
soften the blow
Take what you want
Leave nothing more
Escape from your pride
Beg for attention
Lay them aside with good intentions

I was broken in
I'm not leaving instead
I broke promises kept
You're absent heart on a string
I thought I told you once
I thought I told you twice
I came here to get what I want
Fired two shots in the sky

You're always scared of the shadows
And still you look like you've seen a ghost
Come back, this heart attack won't spare my lungs
Take it all

Show me that you mean it
The damn kids won't believe it
