

Life of Misery

Drowning Pool

All your life ain't sending to you
On a silver platter with a golden spoon
And you only do just enough to get by
You never had to work a hard day in your life

You think you're better than me, better than me
You better change your fucked up attitude
Don't look at me, don't look at me
Like you expect some sort of gratitude
You keep on fooling yourself
You're full of yourself

I could, I could never lead
Lead a life of misery like you live in
I would, I would rather die
Than live a life of misery with you in it

Look at you now, what a waste now
Your life of misery
Look at you now, what a joke now
Your life of misery

I don't even know where to begin
To where I'd describe such a self-righteous pig
All you ever do is bitch and complain
About the small things and it drives me insane

You think you're better than me, better than me
You better change your fucked up attitude
Don't look at me, don't look at me
Like you expect some sort of gratitude
You keep on fooling yourself
You're full of yourself

I could, I could never lead
Lead a life of misery like you live in
I would, I would rather die
Than live a life of misery with you in it

Look at you now, what a waste now
Your life of misery
Look at you now, what a joke now
Your life of misery
Take lie after lie after lie
If it makes you feel that much better
Look at you now, what a joke now
Your life of misery

Look at you, out of shame
All alone, what a waste
Fuck me, well fuck you too

Good, I could never lead
Lead a life of misery like you live in
I would, I would rather die
Than live a life of misery with you in it

Look at you now, what a waste now
Your life of misery
Look at you now, what a joke now
Your life of misery
Take lie after lie after lie
If it makes you feel that much better
Look at you now, what a joke now
Your life of misery
