White Magic For Lovers

Drugstore

Leave a candle by his doorstep With a snapshot of his face Turn around and take a deep breath On the first weekend of May

Keep a hair strand in your pocket And don't rely on any friend Brew some Catalina Coffee With the letters of his name

White magic for lovers When all your love has gone away White magic for lovers When you hold on

Oh, you hold on To your faith Turn your tears back into water And leave the bottle by his door

With a message on the cover Saying, ?To the one you love? White magic for lovers When all your love has gone away

White magic for lovers When you hold on Oh, you hold on To your faith

White magic for lovers When all your love has gone away White magic for lovers When you hold on

Oh, you hold on When you hold on Oh, you hold on To your faith