

Our Love Goes Deeper Than This

Duke Special

She loved me once
She loved me twice
I broke her heart and left her reeling
I could not look her in the eyes
I could not face where this was leading

I know that I should lose her now
It's true, I don't deserve her
And though I love her til I die
I know that I must leave her

But she said no
Our love goes deeper than this
But she said no
Our love goes deeper than this

A sent a rose
A blackened rose
To atone for my mistreating
But when she pressed it
To her breast it
Pierced her flesh and left her bleeding

I know that I should lose her now
It's true, I don't deserve her
And though I love her til I die
Now I must desert her

But she said no
Our love goes deeper than this
She said no
Our love goes deeper than this
Even though
There's poison in each kiss
She said no
Our love goes deeper than this

I know I can't undo what's done
It's true, I don't deserve her
And though I'll love her til I'm gone
Now I must desert her

But she said no
Our love goes deeper than this
She said no
Our love goes deeper than this

Even though
There's poison in each kiss
She said no
Our love goes deeper than this
