Oh woman you make me feel
Like I'm on fire
Oh woman you make it real
It's the only way for me
So if we sometimes fight
Doesn't mean we got problems
Ain't always black and white
'n who cares anyway?

Doesn't have to be serious Doesn't have to be serious Serious Doesn't have to be serious Doesn't have to be serious

Oh baby you get so wild

Too much understanding
Oh baby you're such a child

Full up with on love and tears and cryin'

Don't worry if you're confused

We all tend to be sometimes

The whole world is getting used

That's just the way it is...

May be right, ooh it may be wrong Doesn't have to be serious Being hard isn't being strong Doesn't have to be serious Fighting for love, fighting for pain Doesn't have to be serious And if you win, oh what do you gain? Doesn't have to be serious

Ooh, doesn't have to be serious
Maybe right, oh but maybe wrong
Doesn't have to be serious
Fighting for love, fighting for pain
Doesn't have to be serious
And if you win, oh what do you gain?
Doesn't have to be serious
Maybe right, oh but maybe wrong
Doesn't have to be serious
Being hard, isn't being strong
