This Is How a Road Gets Made

Duran Duran

Somebody walked on a virgin (land).

Someone else saw their tracks and followed them Leaving a path. It seemed as though I were looking down the hill When I first s aw it

But, as I waled on, I realized I was going up.

Somebody whistled behind and turning round

They seemed far below.

Then I came to where there had been a fire

And was shaded

From the sun by the trees.
