

Will I See You Again

E-Type

In the dark
I'm lying all alone
I just wonder where you are
But i know that you will come
That you'll be there

I've got to walk this lonesome road
To get this of my head
I've got no time for the living dead
So, i'm taking off for higher ground
To get you off my back
You know, you gotta cut me some slack
'cause now i'm ready to go, i can't be stopped
I'm ready to go, i can't be stopped
'cause now i'm ready to go, i can't be stopped
I'm ready to go, i can't be stopped

Will i see you again
I didn't have the chance to say, i'm sorry
Will i see you again
This is more than i can take (from you)

A bottle of moonshine in the evening
And the daymare starts to fade
Now i've got time for the weekend raid
I'm on my own and i can't stay bored,
I've passed that river long ago
I'm not sure i'm your friend or foe
'cause now i'm ready to go, i can't be stopped
I'm ready to go, i can't be stopped
'cause now i'm ready to go, i can't be stopped
I'm ready to go, i can't be stopped

Will i see you again
I didn't have the chance to say, i'm sorry
Will i see you again
This is more than i can take (from you)

I've got to clear my head
