

The World

Earlimart

The world is all around us,
It's much too big to see.
And the words are seldom honest
So we never disagree.

Oh, the world is all around us
But have you noticed me?
Yeah, the world has overshadowed me.

The world is all around us,
So tell me what you see.
Yeah, the world is all around us,
There's little room to breathe.

Oh, the world is all around us,
But have you noticed me?
Oh, the world is all around us,
Have you noticed me?

Yeah, the world is all around us,
Now it's plain to see
That the world has overshadowed me.
