cold within
the waves of my delusion crashing in
i'm burned in sin

darken my eyes
so i will never be
hollow my heart
so i am free

so i will never be
hollow my heart
so i am free
