

Kiss of Winter

East 17

I miss your kiss
the way you used to touch me I miss your love
the way you used to crush me I miss your taste
so sweet and yet so bitter I miss your breath
so fresh like
the kiss of winter

Oh angel angel
please don't fly away
oh angel angel
please don't cry

until we meet again
I'll be your memory
until we cry again
I'll be your tear
until my sky heals
you are my patience
until we love again
I'll be right here

Oh angel angel
please don't fly away
oh angel angel
please don't cry

and the world has left me all alone you come to me
and from this noose around my neck you set me free

Oh angel angel
please don't fly away
oh angel angel
please don't cry
