Green, Green, Grass of Home

Eddy Arnold

The old hometown looks the same as I step down from the train And there to meet me is my mama and papa Down the road I look and there runs Mary hair of gold and lips like cherries It's good to touch the green green grass of home Yes they'll all come to meet me arms areaching smiling sweetly It's good to touch the green green grass of home The old house is still standing though the paint is cracked and dry And there's that old oak tree that I used to play on Down the lane I walk and there Mary hair of gold and lips like cherries It's good to touch the green green grass of home Then I awake look around me at the grey walls that surround me And I realize that I was only dreaming There's a guard and there's that sad old padre arm in arm we'll walk at daybreak Again I'll touch I'll touch the green green grass of home Yes they'll all come to see me in the shade of that old oak tre е As they lay me neath the green green grass of home
