

My Hope Is Safe With Thee

Eden's Bridge

Now alone and far from home
My strength is gone from me
Yet through wind and hail
You shield my sail
My hope is safe with Thee

Though storms may rage
And I may fail
My strength will come from Thee
Through wind and hail
You shield my sail
My hope is safe with Thee

And tomorrow I will see
That Your strength is real
And I will be with Thee
And through wind and hail
You shield my sail
My hope is safe with Thee.
