

Chances

Edison Glass

When I was a boy, who lifted me so I could see
Above all the things height has restricted
Ooh, oh, maybe someday I'll be a man

Ooh, oh, figuring out how I'm supposed to be Ooh, oh, breath in and out, I'll take my chances

Now I can climb to see what I need to
As birds that make flight, I fall just to learn how Ooh, oh, maybe someday I'll understand

Oh, figuring out how I'm supposed to be
Ooh, oh, breath in and out, I'll take my chances today

I'll be a man, if we can't climb again
I'll be a man, and say, whoa

Oh, figuring out how I'm supposed to be
Oh, breath in and out, I'll take my chances today
