

Un homme d'action

Eggnoise

Give me a melody
And i may show you the way
To play it soft, with ease
I will not let you lose it

This gracious melody
Let it tickle your ears
Let it whisper like the breeze
Let it take you inside

Never had anything to lose
It's wonderful how you're kissing me
But i can't breathe
First time that i saw you i thought that i
Couldn't catch up with you even if i tried
So irresistible, your irony
She was trying to read my thoughts but i hadn't any

You, you must be the woman of my dreams
Can you show me to dance
Were you not looking for me
And this melody
