Dance-A-Thon 2005

Electric Six

Baby get up off the floor
That man you with he ain't no innocent man
He's a killer child
I've seen him rip apart a young girl with his bare hands

Now I know you think you know just what you're doing
And you've been here time and time again before
But be careful with your heart
Because this thing's about to start
And it's about to escalate into a war

Twenty-five contestants start the show
But only one will survive
It's not how you dance it's who you know

Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five
Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five
Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five
Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five
Two-thousand-five

There's two hearts
Too far apart
To understand the game
But when this thing is over, child
Everybody here gonna remember your name

Now baby shoot out all the lights
And bring those crazy judges down to their knees
'Cos they're watching you all night, child
A distinguished panel of celebrities

Twenty-five contestants start the show
But only one will survive
It's not how you dance it's who you know

Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five
Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five
Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five
Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five
Dance-A-Thon two-thousand-five

Five!

And I want to reach into the fire of your heart
And I want to program all those beats right from the start.
