

I Never Fucked Her

Electric Six

I, I never fucked her
I, I never fucked her

And the noose
The noose is coming loose
And the deuce
The deuce is no excuse
And I'm feeling loose
So yeah, I'm feeling loose

And they will stop the drugs and count to ten
And you will never feel free again
And they will stop the drugs and count to ten
And you will never feel free again
And you will find your life is nowhere to be found
Here's the sound of the choir

Hey!

I, I do not trust her
And I, I shall instruct her

And here we sit across from each other
Forming a narrative of sister vs. brother
And if I only had my each and every

I would revote and change the rules
So we could run around like fools
I would revote and change the rules
So we could run around like fools
And as nature's debased, God's erased
It's a taste that is aquired

Hey

I, I never fucked her
I, I never fucked her
