Stupidity Tries

Elliott Smith

Got a foot in the door God knows what for And he'll cut me down to size Stupidity tries

Everything here is free Everything but you and me This painting never dries Stupidity tries

Savannah shoulder raised a cheer Coloring the sky with ash Because they found some privateer To sail across a sea of trash

The enemy is within
Don't confuse me with him
The truth is otherwise
Stupidity tries

And so I go from floor to floor Looking for a port of call Another drunk conquistador Conquering the governor's ball

I couldn't think of a thing That I hope tomorrow brings Oh, what a surprise Stupidity tries
