Dr Luther's Assistant

Elvis Costello

Everything seems so tranquil

Home movies with no subtitles

Don't you wish you knew what they were sayin'

When the film keeps playin', playin'?

Oh, he's Doctor Luther's assistant

He'll close in when he seems so distant

Doctor Luther's assistant

He'll get on top of you when you lower your resistance

Some say he is just a lackey Changing words while the ink is still tacky He's absolutely indispensable He keeps the other boys in suspense

Oh, he's Doctor Luther's assistant
He'll close in when he seems so distant
Doctor Luther's assistant
He'll get on top of you when you lower your resistance

Luther is locked in a broken-down cinema Watches his wife with his video camera Sees his best boy makin' her grin Out of the kitchen, she's gone with the wind

Oh, Doctor Luther's assistant
He'll close in, when he seems so distant
Doctor Luther's assistant
He'll get on top of you when you lower your resistance
