

Here I've reached that point again
I search, but I can't find you
This tension I can't bear
I have to dare to fight you

I run - you hide behind this wall
I'll break your pride, I'll make you fall

Don't wither inside, stop running away
Your mirror will fail, you're losing the game
Don't try to hide, don't try to fade
It's not the same, cause I'm changing

Here I've reached that point again
I search, but I can't find me
This tension I can't bear
I have to dare to fight me

I run and hide behind my wall
I'll break my pride - my mask will fall

Don't wither inside, stop running away
Your mirror will fail, you're losing the game
Don't try to hide, don't try to fade
It's not the same, cause I'm changing
