

Killing My Dreams

Elysion

Why have ourselves abandoned us?
Why they no more belong to us
Cry to the sky, pray to believe;
My heart and soul will never forgive.
We are all being used
Our lives have been abused
Still no one resists
I guess
There's nothing to lose
I am no longer confused
You're killing my dreams
My heart cries out for the touch I will never have Before my eyes you've burned everything I loved
I'm on the edge and you're forcing me not to fall
You'll never see me crawl
We are all being used
Our lives have been abused
Still no one resists
I guess
There's nothing to lose
I am no longer confused
You're killing my dreams
We are all being used
Our lives have been abused
Still no one resists
I guess
There's nothing to lose
I am no longer confused
You're killing my dreams
Why have ourselves abandoned us?
Why they no more belong to us
Cry to the sky, pray to believe;
My heart and soul will never forgive.
We are all being used
Our lives have been abused
Still no one resists
I guess
There's nothing to lose
I am no longer confused
You're killing my dreams
We are all being used
Our lives have been abused
Still no one resists
I guess
There's nothing to lose
I am no longer confused
You're killing my dreams
