

Friend To A Stranger

Emerson Hart

From a friend to a stranger, how's your life in your current situation

Did they hold you hostage?

Did they tell you lies?

Just to add to your frustration

Oh my heart...

So you travel all day and you travel high

On a road to change your life

Now to give it all the way but to sing your song

Cause in the end that's when you arrive

Oh My heart it brings me

When I hear them call your name

Oh to see

Inside myself

Like I can see

But no one else could ever know

The way we'd end up here

So from a friend to a stranger how's your life in your current situation?

Wish you happiness and freedom and I wish you life

When you reach your destination

Your destination (3x)
