Catching The Sky

Take a look at your soul To see what it takes How black can it it be? Just breathe the pain You hit the bottom You know where I'm going Devil ends up like you There's no turning back

It all ends tonight

True to me It will come Just wait and see I will tell you why True famine It's true to me Like a fire it comes and goes True famine What we deny

I don't need you to gain My confidence Is it true what they say Do I just feel the same?

All lies On my lifetime Death wish Another high five End of You
