

Crawl From The Wreckage

Engineers

Too strong, I abdicate hit a rightful trail then steal from your box with the river crosswind I make craters fall in hustled from day one
made it this far

Leave now it's better to walk away crawl from the wreckage to your dismay

New song for brighter days got a spiteful trait not helped by your loss peel your layers thin while I make craters fall in
made it this far

Something's not helped me up to sit back low with you now tried to stop you drifting still you follow
nothing left to lose
