The Crossing

Enslaved

I no longer struggle
No longer see
Nothing remains, burning anxiety
Darkness came forth
Gave birth to me
Certain death is all I see

I see you weep
I see you suffer
I've seen kingdoms rise and fall
I've seen all that's supposed to be

Earthbound forces, united with sorrow The path was given in ancient times Embraced by hunger, forgotten by will The wisdom is hold up still

Break the chains, come forth to see Cross the abyss not meant to be Cross the river, find the key Kill the queen of anxiety
