Bloodsong

Entombed

Drinking blood
a red delightful bloody power my fatal bite
the art of the blackest hour I suck your blood
an immense everlasting lust morning grows
the sun burns me to dust

Your beating heart gives the flow in my high I will let you go red pulsing rivers to me from you but when I'm there you are through a vampire

blood desire
gets me higher
an unquenchable fire

Revel in blood under the moon give me your blood it is my doom it's a power beyond belief beyond pain my life's a stream inside your vein

I suck your blood!
