

Loser Of The World

Enuff Z'Nuff

Well look at me
Out on my own again.
When I should be
On my way home again.
No mystery
That I'm alone again.
The loser of the world.

The one I love
Is never true to me.
I'm not above
What she could do to me.
I'm so tired,
Their tryin' to get through to me.
The loser of the world.

Hey! Won't you stay?
I've been so long in the dark,
The nights become my day.

You look at me,
Let it enlighten you.
But what you see
Will maybe frighten you.
You just might be
A little bit like me too.
The loser of the world.
The loser of the world.
The loser of the world.
