

My Dear Dream

Enuff Z'Nuff

Hold on,
Don't throw yourself away,
Honey nothing's forever.
Hold on,
Don't blow yourself away,
Honey nothing's forever.
Looking for love where there is no emotion,
And where do we go from here?
Looking for air at the floor of the ocean,
An ocean of lonely tears.
Ooh, another time,
Another place,
My dear dream.

Well I just got back from a run
And I'm feeling all right.
Well there ain't much time
'Til I get that chill,
Gotta make it through the night.
I stand up,
I sit down.
In my sides I start to drown.
And there is only one thing on my mind.
I hit up, I get down.
There's a new sensation that I've found.
I hit up, I get down.
There's a new sensation going 'round.

Looking for love where there is no emotion,
And where do we go from here?
Looking for air at the floor of the ocean,
An ocean of lonely tears.
Ooh, another time,
Another place,
My dear dream.
