

Runaway

Eowyn

what do you see when you look passed smoke and mirrors a broken mist that you kept hidden from view but that's just surfaced look what s beneath hope is rising

Runaway not today
Fear is sure to come along insecurities must go Runaway not today
Face my fears and take a chance
like a parasite i hold

Whatever hand that i hold now i must grow up
and take my place
inside this maze
will courage show up

completely blinded
love is now seen
it's been missing

Runaway not today
Fear is sure to come along insecurities must go Runaway not today
Face my fears and take a chance
like a parasite i hold

I'm so tired of waiting wondering why
will i stay
will i go
will i try
