

I don't wanna try to fight this love
How dangerous can it be
I know the odds are so unfavorable
And honesty's forsakable
So many run for safety
Run from the

Danger of falling in love like this
Danger of falling apart
In the hands of another
Danger in falling in love like this
Cold sweat craving the dark
So completely
So sweetly
Danger

Things have gone wrong
They do more often than they don't
I was a child before
A soldier in defense
I'll take the leap
I've gone so far for lesser gold
I wanna know this life
By your side
I don't wanna try to fight this love
How dangerous can it be
I know the odds are so unfavorable
And honesty's forsakable
So many run for safety
Run from the

Danger of falling in love like this
Danger of falling apart
In the hands of another
Danger in falling in love like this
Cold sweat craving the dark
So completely
So sweetly
Danger

Danger of falling in love like this
Danger of falling apart
In the hands of another
Danger in falling in love like this
Cold sweat craving the dark
So completely
So sweetly
Danger of falling in love like this
